Manufacturers Are Backward About Answering Lists Sent by Committee

WOOL RATE CAUSES MUCH DISCUSSION

Senator Simmons Says He Can See No Remedy Save Passage of Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Most of the manufacturers of the country have ignored the list of questions sent them by the senate finance committee...

Senator La Follette, originator of the idea of sending out the questions with the hope of throwing light on tariff revision, had his own list mailed along with that of the committee.

The senator's remarks, his first during the tariff debate, were made opposing an attempt of Senators Dillingham, Page and Gallinger to increase proposed duties on raw wool.

Senator Brandegee asked Senator Simmons today if he had been able to get any undertakers in the house...

Fuel Company Officers Are Charged with Gigantic Fraud

SAAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—At a conference with the special committee who will prosecute the Western fuel company cases here this month, David G. Powers, formerly an employee of the company, and now the chief witness for the government...

Powers gave the names of those who had approached him and the phraseology of the offer.

Will Prosecute All. "We shall vigorously prosecute every person connected with this immense fraud."

The president and directors of the Western Fuel company are charged with having defrauded the government of customs duties aggregating nearly $1,000,000.

In the second charge of corruption influence made since the indictments were returned, when John L. Moore, assigned as United States attorney here, charged in a sensational letter to President Wilson...

BURCH STATION WANTS REGULAR RAILWAY DEPOT

Charles W. Dockery Presents New Phase of Law to Commerce Commission

N. C. AUTHORITIES LACK JURISDICTION

Congressman Howard, of Georgia, "Peevish" Over Big N. C. Marble Contract

(By George H. Manning) WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Charles W. Dockery, on behalf of himself and the citizens in and around Burch Station, Surry county, North Carolina, today placed before the interstate commerce commission an entirely new phase of governmental railroad control...

The petition states that the appeal is made to the commission because that body has no jurisdiction, North Carolina has no jurisdiction, there being a station within five miles of Burch Station, the Southern railway company, thereby complying with the state law.

This is an entirely new phase of commerce law and in well informed circles, both federal and constitutionalists are complying with the desire of the American government for the protection of foreigners and their property and there is a hopeful feeling that the bill will be passed.

In the mean time President Wilson and his advisers are opposed to any attempt to force the American government into any hasty declaration of policy. Secretary Bryan promptly denied today a story that European governments are pressing the United States to take action on the report of the president himself.

MULHALL LETTERS

Administration Will Take No Hasty Action Regarding the Present Situation in Mexico

Hopes That Mexicans Will Arrive at Peaceful Solution of Troubles—European Governments Are Not Pressing United States for Settlement of Conditions in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Development in the Mexican situation today were confined to efforts on the part of the administration to prevent unnecessary agitation over the revolution.

So far as the United States is concerned, both federal and constitutionalists are complying with the desire of the American government for the protection of foreigners and their property and there is a hopeful feeling that the bill will be passed.

The ambassador is expected to hold views at variance with those of the president and Secretary Bryan, and it is said on good authority that information is in possession of the state department contradicting in many essential details the reports of Ambassador Wilson.

Mr. Wilson is not likely to go back to Mexico as the Mexican ambassador. News was so far in Mexican circles about the progress of the peace suggestions that are passing and are from between some of the leaders of the two factions in Mexico.

SENATE FINISHES WITH M. MULHALL; FACES HOUSE NEXT

Self-Confessed Lobbyist Released After Brief Cross-Examination

HOUSE PROBE OF WITNESS TO START

Will Probably Begin Tuesday and Promises Much Bitterness

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The lobby committee today completed the examination of Martin M. Mulhall, ex-lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, and the grilling of the individual will be transferred early next week to the house end of the capitol.

The senate investigation, it is believed, will produce more bitterness even than has characterized the senate investigation which has been directed only to routine reading of letters in which reference was made to Mulhall's alleged relations with members of the congress.

Chairman Garrett and his associates on the house side propose to begin with a searching examination of Mulhall. The letters will be put up for a direct examination as to his alleged activities in legislative matters and election in the congress.

NICARAGUANS PROTEST AGAINST BRYAN TREATY

Large Element Adverse to Yielding Any Degree of Sovereignty to U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Opposition in the senate to the plan of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan for an American protectorate over Nicaragua has received support from representatives of the liberal party in that republic.

Protests against the treaty are being made in Washington by General Francisco Alcazar, commander in chief of the Nicaraguan liberals. He contends that many of his people do not favor the idea of the protectorate although they are willing to make a treaty to give the United States a proposed perpetual canal building right over the Nicaraguan route.

A preliminary draft of the treaty is now before the senate committee and will be considered at a meeting tomorrow. Senators Borah, Clark, of Arkansas, Williams and others who will oppose the convention, have their objections upon the claim that a protectorate over any central American country would be a radical departure from the method foreign policy of the United States.

THE WEATHER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Forecast for North Carolina: Occasional showers Saturday with somewhat cooler east portion; Sunday probably showers.

DEFINITE ACTION ON COTTON BILL POSTPONED

Smith's Bill Regarding Futures Brings On Two Hours Hot Debate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Definite action on the Smith cotton future bill was postponed by the senate committee on agriculture after two hours debate until a meeting probably next week when a vote will be taken by the full committee on the advisory committee on cotton matters.

Senator Smith claims the bill as decided upon by the sub-committee, will be approved by the full committee. MAY RETURN TO WORK. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 1.—That the striking miners on Cabin Point will be back at work within a few days was indicated tonight when a report from the local miners' union there showed that every local except that at Oley had ratified the terms proposed in the agreement between operators and officials of the United Mine Workers of America.

Give Your Subscription Now Vote Schedule Decreases Aug 9 Now Is the Golden Time to Hustle For the Many Valuable Prizes in $2,500 Contest.

WHAT THE WISE MAN SAYS: "MAKE GOOD." Cut out "it" should, "should." And start in to save good. You can still have the best things in life like the rest of those who've achieved. Just because they believed in themselves. You're elected. If you think Fortune comes With a rattle of drums, And a tangle of state. To save YOURS on a plate. That isn't the way. There she visits today. Plunge into the fight. Hit to the left and right! Don't let us with your hitting. 'Till things meet your hiding. 'Till makes the world better. To look like a quitter. Fate scowls when she sees A person on his knees. Why, the frolic-down toads Have the sense to keep jumping. And here you stand frumping. Come, now, strike your gait. It isn't too late. Drop that fool talk at "lack." Get a grip on your pluck; There are prizes to win; It's a shame and a sin To be passed by the rest. You're one of the best In THIS CITIZEN Contest. Show what you are—Win a touring car. Make people say What a hustler you are. Jump in today, Shout hooray! "Me for the best In the great contest." If others are slowing And showing All their true done, Don't care a fig. Get out and dig. Now's the time to begin. Never stop till you win. Don't Hesitate Any Longer. Have you been hesitating about entering The Citizen's $2,500 automobile and pony subscription contest? Probably just at first you could not quite make up your mind to do so. Little difficulties occurred to you. By degrees they seemed small and trifling compared with the wonderful prizes you could win. By this time, perhaps, you are afraid that some one who entered before you had gained a lead and which it would be difficult to overcome. Could anything be more opportune for such a case as yours than the big rate of votes now on, and lasting until August 9, inclusive? Now, while you still yearly subscription to the Daily and Sunday Citizen will count 2,000 votes in your favor, you will find it more than possible to overtake the most industrious candidate so far. Look at the Prize List. When you look at that prize list does not a spark of genuine enthusiasm kindle within you? Naturally you would prefer to win the $1,000 touring car, although many girls and boys prefer the $200 pony and cart outfit. While it is well to enter with the full assurance that your chance of winning the very best is fully as good as any one's, you must not make the mistake of overlooking the great value of the other prizes. Many enter a contest, but few stick to it with sufficient zeal to earn an earnest rival. You can note, as the contest progresses, that there are numbers who, having run the race swiftly for a short time, lose their breath before they are anywhere near the end. As they begin to lag it is your opportunity to catch up, pass them and improve your standing. These opportunities will occur so often that you will be pushed automatically to much nearer the head of the list. The remaining places you must capture by your own effort. Make Your Preparations Now. You may just as well start now to make your preparations for winning. An early start will give you the advantage of a day, two days, a week, or the case may be. At the close of the contest you are going to find every minute valuable. While there are still plenty of minutes to use, it would be best for you

PREACHER PRAYED WHILE WILDER SHIELLED CITY While Prayer Service Was Being Held, Wilder Shot Away Roof of Church.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 1.—While the war game has its dangers and hardships, it also has its pleasures and its lotions. It is a good interlude to listen to a couple of old soldiers, who have the eye to the ridiculous side of things, relate experiences around Chattanooga. Many good stories have never found their way into print. General John T. Wilder, of Wilder's brigade fame, for example, slipped to the top of Bringer's ridge on the north side of the Tennessee river one morning and began shelling the town. The day before this movement against the Confederates in Chattanooga, the President Jefferson Davis, of the Southern Confederacy, visited General Bragg here and suggested a general service for next day in the interest of their cause. An eloquent divine was invited to come up from Huntsville, Ala., and lead the services. The meeting was held in an old church at the corner of Market and Seventh streets, the edifice being crowded with citizens and many Confederate officers. General Wilder knew nothing about this prayer service. The first shot sent a shell directly over the church, a Confederate battery being in line with the church on the crest of the river bluff. Wilder wanted to silence that battery and blazed away at it. The congregation became somewhat nervous, when General Cheatham, of the Confederate army, who was present at the meeting, arose and assured them that there was no danger, that the firing they heard was "our own men at target practice," that there was no Yankee in fifty miles of Chattanooga. This reassured the congregation for the time being and the devout minister knelt in prayer, requesting the congregation to join with him. He prayed with his back to the audience and with his eyes closed. As the first shell from Wilder's battery had gone too high, the gunners were directed to lower their sights a bit. They did so, and the shell took part of the cornice from the roof of the church. The preacher pressed on, however, while his entire congregation quietly fled out of the church. He finally ended the prayer, only to find at its close that the congregation had deserted him. The shell that took away the roof of the church fell and exploded where the Hotel Patton now stands.
