Bowles Sees Return Of Dairy Products To OPA Control

WASHINCTON, Aug. 27.

(AP)—The prospect of higher meat price ceilings than OPA planned confronted housewives tonight, while controls were removed from most baby foods, canned tomato prices were raised, and announcement was made that the sugar ration must remain as is through the first part of 1947. On the other side, however, Price A d mi nistrator Paul Porter said, he will "insist at my earliest possible opportunity that fluid milk and dairy products again be put under ceiling price."
