POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

POD Publication 6

JULY 1, 1961.

PREFACE

This publication contains a list of first-class post offices with named stations and branches arranged alphabetically by States as of July 1, 1961. It has been prepared for use in mailing parcel post under readjusted size and weight limits as modified by the act of October 24, 1951 (Public Law 199).

Copies of this publication may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C., for 35 cents each. Enclose remittances with order.

Classification of post offices is subject to adjustment effective July 1 each year, based on receipts for the previous calendar year.

The symbol (§) indicates summer stations or branches.

The symbol (||) indicates winter stations or branches.

The abbreviation "Ind." following the name of a station or branch indicates it is independent for the receipt and dispatch of registered and other mail.

The abbreviation "MOU" indicates Money Order Unit.
