CATALOGUES PLACED IN RURAL MAIL BOXES WITHOUT PAYMENT OF POSTAGE

THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL,
Washington, February 2, 1933.

It has come to attention that agents of some mail-order houses and others are placing catalogues in rural route mail boxes without any prepayment of postage. Attention is, therefore, invited to paragraphs 3 and 4, section 1020, Postal Laws and Regulations, edition of 1932, which prescribe that mail boxes along rural routes are erected exclusively for the reception of mail matter and that all mailable matter deposited in such boxes is subject to the conditions prescribed for mail matter, including the payment of postage, proper address, etc. Furthermore, when a rural carrier finds deposited in boxes mailable matter on which postage has not been paid the carrier shall take such matter to the post office to be held for postage and treated as prescribed by section 723, Postal Laws and Regulations.

It also appears that agents distributing such matter have called upon postmasters and postal employees to assist them in correcting the addresses on the catalogues and routing the matter for delivery under the conditions set forth above. Postmasters and postal employees are not permitted to give such information or assistance with respect to matter delivered outside the mails and postmasters should take steps to see that these instructions are carried out.

F. A. TILTON,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.
